MIDVAAL ENDURANCE CLUB QUEENS CHALLENGE

Midvaal, Gauteng – 07 SEPTEMBER 2010 = MIDVAAL ENDURANCE

Midvaal Local Municipality's Executive Mayor, Cllr. TK Nast showed his support for endurance racing by attending the Club Queens challenge on Saturday, 28 August at the Bloekompoort Caravan Park. The highlight of the Queens Challenge is a race run over 120km with riders weighing over 70kg and where mares compete against the winning stallion from Loskop Club's Battle of the Stallions.

In the cool morning breeze the Executive Mayor took on the reigns of a young stallion. He was joined by his beautiful wife with whom he enjoyed the panoramic view of the Vaal Dam.

Midvaal encourages a healthy lifestyle and was one of the major sponsors for this successful day. It proved to be a great medium for families to spend time together as different activities were provided, ranging from a potjiekos dinner, swimming pool and a TV to watch the rugby match all hosted on the same day.
