Midvaal Municipality in conjunction with VCR 90.6 hosts an annual cycle challenge aimed at raising funds for and creating awareness of charity organizations that assist the underprivileged in the area.

Following the previous cycle challenge, The Executive Mayor of Midvaal, Cllr. T.K. Nast, presented the Areyeng Home in Tedderfield with a cheque for R5000.00 in recognition of their contribution to assisting persons with mental disorders. Most of the residents of the Areyeng Home have been abandoned by their families.

Gawie Marè, the General Manager of Areyeng Home said: "On behalf of everyone I would like to thank Midvaal and VCR 90.6fm for the generous contribution towards the home. Without assistance from people like yourselves this home for the mentally ill could not stay open and continue to offer care to its residents."

The Executive Mayor, Cllr TK Nast stressed that it was important for Midvaal to assist such organisations in caring for the less fortunate but that the real heroes are the men and women that have made huge sacrifices to keep the home open despite financial difficulties.
